

Name Discussion Question Rubric Week 2 & 4

Description A total of 20 points are available for this discussion question. It's a good idea to log in to the course three separate days per week to keep up with the discussion. The requirement is two separate days. You must have at least one original post and three responses to your classmates' post. DQ Participation Tips: Participate EARLIER in the WEEK rather than at the last possible moment. Reply to others EARLIER in the WEEK rather than at the last possible moment. Check in and participate in the discussion at least three separate days of the week. Your participation in the discussion question is assessed using the rubric shown below:

Rubric Detail

Criteria	Levels of Achievement
	Exceptional	Average	Needs Improvement	Unacceptable
Content	19 to 20 points Content is complete, accurate and offers new ideas. The discussion is well supported with details that explain the participant's conclusions. Content encourages further discussion on topic. Participant has read and processed the assignment. Participant followed all guidelines/directions.	14 to 18 points Content is complete and accurate, but lacking in new ideas, or there may be one area an opinion is presented without supporting facts or references. Content generally doesn't invite further discussion or investigation. The participant has read the assignment, but understanding is minimal.	2 to 14 points Ideas were incomplete or had inaccuracies, or there are two or more opinions presented without supporting facts.	0 to 1 points Response was not applicable to the discussion or did not follow Netiquette. Participant did not follow directions.

View Associated Items

Print Close Window

